NITZAN SHABBAT w/ Rabbi Joey Wolf

For Students and Families in Grades 4-6. Nitzan is the Hebrew for a flower bud. The reason we're calling this gathering Nitzan is that we'll sit at a big table, watch the week's Torah bloom, listen to parents and children converse, sing a niggun or two, maybe one or two prayers, and let nature take its course! No formal service, just a hint of give and take and quiet and sweet song.

Saturdays, 10:00 – 11:30 am

2011 – November 12, December 17

2012 – January 28, March 31, April 21

THE OYS AND JOYS OF PARENTING

Parenting is not for the faint-hearted. How do we deal with everyday and life-changing moments of raising children? We will consider 'best practices' alongside Jewish values and wisdom about parenting in order to reflect upon our own parenting joys and challenges. Allan Cordova, clinical psychologist, will facilitate. Parents need to attend both sessions. Please register by November 10th. Maximum number of participants: 12.

Saturdays, 3:15 – 4:45

November 19, December 3

MINDFUL PARENTING with Scholar in Residence

Rabbi Sheila Peltz Weinberg will help us use our minds and our hearts and spirits to consider what it means to be truly present in our parenting. Rabbi Weinberg is a founder of the Institute for Jewish Spirituality, as well as a poet, educator and nationally recognized pioneer in contemplative practice. She has published widely on feminism, Judaism, spirituality and single parenting, and has contributed commentaries to Kol HaNeshama, the new Reconstructionist Prayerbook.

Saturday, April 28, 2012, 3:15 – 4:45 pm

CREATING A CULTURE OF CHESED (KINDNESS)

Every school/community has its own culture that reflects and creates values, interpersonal styles, behavioral norms, shared language. Our Havurah/Shabbat School culture has emerged over time organically (sometimes randomly and sometimes intentionally). It is time to assess the current culture of this community, envision where we hope to be, and plan intentional and deliberate steps toward desired changes. These sessions provide a forum for parent guidance of that process.

Saturdays, 3:15 – 4:45
